Renovalia Energy Group joins the Real Madrid Foundation and the Red Cross to help those affected by the DANA.

Renovalia would like to convey its solidarity and condolences to the families and relatives of the people affected by the storm that is devastating many areas of Spain, especially in the Valencian Community.

The Real Madrid Foundation and the Red Cross have launched a fundraising campaign to support those affected by the storm caused by the DANA in the Valencian Community, which will take the form of a project to help the many families in a critical situation.

Renovalia has decided, in order to show its solidarity and help to all those affected, to contribute to this project with a donation of 100,000 euros.

Renovalia is firmly committed to the Valencian Community.
